Policy and Procedure Manual

This policy document contains the general policies and procedures applicable to Kula Partners, hereafter referred to as “the Employer”/ “the Company”. It serves as a management guideline according to which management decisions are made with regards to service benefits and conditions of employment. The specific provisions of each Employees’ contract of employment shall take precedence over this policy should there be a conflict with the interpretation.

This policy document can, however, be seen as an extension of the contracts of employment.

It remains management’s prerogative to deviate from this document when it is considered to be in the best interest of the Employer. Any changes made to the policy document will be communicated in writing. It is the responsibility of the employee to ensure they are always familiar with the content of the policies.
